

Redemptive Gift – G

1. __ Sees external needs of comfort and food and is quick to meet those needs.
2. __ Is a team player. Is relatively free from the desire to build his own kingdom.
3. __ Is very practical. Is committed to the present moment to meet present needs.
4. __ Has difficulty saying “no” to competing demands. Usually overcommitted in scheduling.
5. __ Finds it hard to accept excellence in his work, to affirm himself, or to receive affirmation from others. Tends to find something to apologize for when serving others.
6. __ Has few enemies.
7. __ Sees the best in others.
8. __ Has high loyalty to family.
9. __ Is not easily angered except when someone hurts a friend or family member.
10. __ Tends to save stuff, but not in a particularly organized manner.
11. __ Is trustworthy and reliable.
12. __ Works very hard, often to the harm of their own physical health.
13. __ Can make excuses to justify others’ bad behavior. Can become enablers, especially to immature people. Those who are wise learn to empower, not to enable others.
14. __ Tends to spoil children, meeting too many needs too often. Those who are immature may be in denial regarding their children’s shortcomings.
15. __ Attracts dishonor, especially in the home. Tends to be the one who is talked down to and has jokes made about them. This gift seems to allow this to happen.
16. __ Is competitive in areas that are considered safe to the servant, such as games or children’s sports teams. Otherwise dedicated to seeing others succeed more than themselves.
17. __ Has purity of motives. Is straight-forward, honest and can be trusted.
18. __ Prefers not to be visible. Does not desire the spotlight.
19. __ Can be in a sinful environment without getting personally defiled (example: Esther).
20. __ Tends to be exploited by others. Tends to have a victim mentality.
21. __ Responds well to truth.
22. __ Can struggle with issues of shame. May believe they deserve to be the victim.
23. __ Wrestles with self-worth. Tends to believe that “I’m not worthy. Others are more worthy.”
24. __ Desires to empower others to achieve their best. Greatest fulfillment comes in knowing he enables somebody else to do their work. Is drawn to pray for leadership and make them successful.
